Administrative History

Memorial Baptist Church in Indianapolis, Indiana had at least two locations in the city. One building was located at Belleview and West St. Clair streets and George G. Kimsey was the church's pastor. Later, the church was located at 3310 West 18th Street. As of 2016, the church building housed the Greater Love Missionary Baptist Church.

Scope and Contents

This collection contains two images of the Memorial Baptists Church in Indianapolis, Indiana at different locations ranging from the 1950s to the 1990s. The first image is a photogcopy of an illustration showing people exiting the front door of the church into the street at Belleview and West St. Clair streets. The second item is a color postcard of the church building located at 3310 West 18th Street, a brick structure with four white columns.
